PCN 1908: Notification of Name Change for MicroChem Corp

Who is Kayaku Advanced Materials, Inc.? It is now the new name for MicroChem Corp. Kayaku Advanced Materials, Inc. will remain as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Nippon Kayaku Co., Ltd., as MicroChem Corp has been since 2008. Paratronix™ and Applied Ink Solutions® are now divisions of Kayaku Advanced Materials.

Why did we change our name? We have been a wholly owned subsidiary of Nippon Kayaku Co., Ltd. since 2008. The name change better aligns our business efforts and corporate identity. It also will provide for future business growth and expansion of our product portfolio with advanced chemistries and technical collaboration to provide our customers with leading-edge products.

Who should I notify of the name change within my company? Everyone who regularly handles our products and/or paperwork should be notified. Please forward this notice and FAQs within your company departments such as purchasing, shipping & receiving, accounting, quality, production, and engineering, for updates to your systems, databases and internal documentation.

When will I use the new name? All business correspondence, including written checks, orders and contracts, should use the corporate name, Kayaku Advanced Materials on October 1, 2019 for both MicroChem and Paratronix.
